METAL DETECTION

At SUPA, we prioritize the safety and integrity of our products. A crucial part of our quality assurance process is the use of metal detection systems. Each product undergoes rigorous screening with metal detectors before packaging. This step is essential to eliminate any risk of metal contaminants, ensuring that every item we deliver is safe for our customers.

Our facility is equipped with industry-leading metal detectors that are routinely calibrated and maintained to guarantee optimal performance. Each product batch is thoroughly checked to confirm the absence of metal contaminants.
